

I am for allowing the power companies to offer broadband over the power lines. I believe that more competition will only benefit the public. As we've been seeing with cable TV, with less competition we, the public, get less of a voice and pay MORE of a premium for the service. Perhaps the power co's should be allowed to provide TV over power lines as well..